entertained by Mrs. Bertha McAllister, Wednesday afternoon.

FORE STREET

I take it, after reading the items in the Norway and vicinity news, especially concerning "Shorty Cook's and Muzzy Jenkins" talk, that your rush of printing town reports and such is over, for after reading said items, I concluded that they were not worth the trouble of printing. I would be available and plenty of time to print.

Mark Smith and party of friends from Norway spent the week end at the Smith cottage.

From the supply orders sent for and other indications, business in the logging camps is rushing, though even now help is needed on certain work.

Lawrence Brown of Norway Center was a Sunday guest at E. E. Twitwell's.

E. E. Twitwell was ill Sunday and unable to attend church.

Many are having the prevailing cold with the sore throat that goes with it.

Natives of Maine who are in California or Florida may rejoice that they can back in warm sunshine for this last week when snow has not been falling it has been flying and in such hurries that one could not see many feet away, the air so full of it.

We may have a mild winter, but bilzards nor the western earthquakes, but we have discomfort despite our assertions that "We love our rugged New England Winters."

ALLEN HILL

kins', Monday.

NORTH WATERFORD

Rag Fever Broken Out Again, Several Seriously Afflicted—Busy Week Ahead.

There were thirty-four from this place attended the Circle at East Stoneham, Thursday night of last week. The men entertained and a nice oyster and baked bean supper was served. All enjoyed the occasion greatly.

A very bad epidemic has broken out under the hill here, known as rag fever.
Victims are Rilla Marston, Anna Hazleton, Bernice Littlefield, Marion Libby and Hobson. Some are quite seriously effected.

law's, Earl Libby's, after staying in An-burn, a few weeks.

Next week is to be a busy week as Monday is town meeting, Thursday afternoon and evening the union party and Saturday and Sunday carnival with chicken dinner at vestry and Grangers are to serve suppers at their hall. In the evening the drama will be presented at I. O.

O. F. Hall by home talent.
Sarah Hersey started from Norway, Friday afternoon afoot, expecting to meet her mother, and unfortunately her mother did not come, so she kept on and walked here and took supper at Annie Hazleton's and spent the night at Jesse Littlefield's, and went to "Slide Inn" on Saturday, where her people are.

Sadie and Elmer Kimball visited at Geo.
Hobson's, Sunday afternoon and evening.
Ogden Kimball is working for Elmer Henley and boards with his aunt, Mrs.
George Hobson.

Russell Thurston is a guest at his father's, Rev. J. C. Thurston's and helped out at the services at the church, Sunday.
Wallace Jones had a horse sick a week ago that died the 14th and had another drop dead, Thursday, on the way to the mill with bolts.

The George M. Knight W. R. C. No. 95 held their regular session on Feb. 18.
There was a large attendance, every one here but two being in their places. Past president, Myra Cheever, installed the patriotic instructor, also second color bearer. For the good of the order was a fine Lincoln and Washington program.

After the meeting a penny lunch was served.

tended the Farm Bureau meeting at Waterford on Tuesday.

EAST STONEHAM

Sewing Bee Last Thursday, also Birthday Party.

The largest sewing bee of the year met Thursday, Feb. 11, at the home of Mrs.
Elmer McAllister. There were thirty present. As it was the hostess's birthday, she received three birthday cakes and a handkerchief shower. Out of town guests were Mrs. Stella McKee and Mrs. Beryl Andrews of North Lovell, Rev. and Mrs.
Wilbur Bull, Mrs. Annie Miles and Gues-ter Holt of North Waterford.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Parker have moved into town and Mr. Parker is working for Virgil Littlefield.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Barker spent Saturday night with his parents, Mr. and Mrs.
John Barker.

Rodney and Keith Groves spent last week with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie McAllister, of Norway.

Roger Adams visited last week at Charlie Chaplin's.

Gladys Parker has gone to Lovell to work.

Why Not Write Us Some Stories?

The Advertiser wants real stories of local interest. Will you be one to contribute and make the Norway Advertiser one of the most active and readable papers in this section?

Every life is crowded with human experiences that are well worth relating.
Select one or more subjects that may apply of local conditions. Write them up so they will convey helpful suggestions or direct attention to familiar landmarks in persons and objects.

We want wholesome stories, bristling with humor, pathos and human nature.
Read in this paper the announcement,
"Stories Wanted."

Subjects are suggested as a guide to many others which will occur to you.
The Advertiser is your paper and widely read. Help to make it a force among the leaders by sending us your stories for publication. Your interest in this matter will be appreciated.

WATERFORD

Mrs. Bertha Adams gave a very pleasant afternoon tea party on Tuesday. The ladies all carried their fancy work and enjoyed visiting together while they sewed. The hostess served tea and delicious sandwiches and cake.

Mrs. Nellie Stone spent the holiday week end in Portland, with her daughter, Katherine Stone, and Miss Esther Cra-tree, a former teacher, near Waterford. On Sunday they attended the First Baptist Church service. The services of this church are broadcasted and many of the Waterford people "tune in" on them.
